On August 10, 2022 The Great Assembly Hall, The Council's Chamber and The Oval Gallery will be unavailable for public.

Attention! Pre-sale of tickets for the exhibition Bernardo Bellotto. On the 300th Anniversary of the Painter's Birthday at a promotional price continues until the end of August. Details>

From April 25 to September 23, 2022, thirteen paintings by Bernardo Bellotto called Canaletto, including all Warsaw veduta from the southern wall of The Canaletto Room, will be loaned to a foreign exhibition in Dresden. The paintings will be replaced with digital reproductions at the time of loan.

Due to the representative functions of the Royal Castle, some interiors may be temporarily excluded from the sightseeing route.

Due to weather conditions, The Royal Gardens may be temporarily closed.

Welcome to the Website of the Royal Castle in Warsaw.

We hope that the content and format will serve as an introduction to our museum and encourage you to visit the splendid interiors that have played such an important role in Polish history.

We invite you to walk around the Castle - either on your own or with a guide - and also to take part in museum lessons, courses, lectures, screenings of films and concerts.
